DESCRIPTION

With the certificate USD Apple Twin Win, investors participate at the end of the term (July 2023) in the positive performance of the Apple share up to the cap of 150% of the starting value. As long as the stock never loses 42% or more of its starting value, even a negative performance is converted 1: 1 into a profit. In the event of a barrier breach by the underlying stock, investors will be exposed one-to-one to market risk due to physical delivery of the share. That In this case, a substantial loss of capital is possible.
